PERSONAL PROJECTS

Newspaper letter Subscription (06/2021 - 06/2021)

- It is proposed that the newspaper could shift to an online format. An overwhelming majority (95 per cent) of survey respondents were 'keen' or 'very keen' on this. The key benefits would be:
- Lower costs . Electronic publication is much cheaper than printing, and the website would require minimal maintenance. Although there are considerable initial costs of developing a website, these would be offset over time.
- Improved accessibility . Students unable to collect a copy and those with visual impairments would be able to read the paper online.
- Digital media experience . For student journalists, gaining experience in running a web-based news site would be invaluable for any job which involves digital communication.

Drum Beats (04/2021 - 05/2021)

- This is the project based on the basics of the JavaScript and it's algorithms.
- In this projects we used various event listeners to respond on the action triggered of producing the drum sounds.

Weather App (04/2021 - 05/2021)

- This projects was based on the data fetching from the API's and parsing the data with JSON and delivered to the web page.
- This project covers various weather aspects such as rain precipitation, weather description, humidity etc.
